BIOGRAPHY

Taylor Alig joined James-Bates-Brannan-Groover-LLP as an associate in the fall of 2021. Her practice is focused on tax and estate planning matters.

Taylor graduated from Mercer University School of Law in 2020. While at Mercer Law, she was a member of the Association of Women Law Students, Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, and the Student Bar Association. Prior to attending law school, Taylor graduated from the University of Georgia with a Bachelor of Science in Political Science.

Before joining James Bates Brannan Groover LLP, Taylor gained experience working as a staff attorney with The Honorable Jeffery O. Monroe, Superior Court of Bibb County and Crawford County in all fields of law including criminal, civil, domestic, and appellate. In addition, Taylor worked as a legal intern at the United States Department of Veterans Affairs in Atlanta, GA and the United States Sentencing Commission in Washington, DC.

Taylor is originally from Brunswick, GA and currently resides in Macon. In her spare time Taylor enjoys playing tennis, volunteering, and spending time with family and friends.
