JBBG is thrilled to announce the addition of attorney Donia Meier to the firm's General Litigation practice group.

Donia focuses her practice on businesses, insurance companies, and local governments in a variety of civil matters including business, employment, insurance claims and coverage disputes, and contractual disputes.

Donia graduated magna cum laude from the University of Georgia in 2018 with a bachelor's degree in political science and international affairs. After completing her undergraduate work, Donia attended Mercer University's Walter F. George School of Law. While attending law school, Donia was a member The Fellowship of Adolescent Mentors, The Federalist Society, Phi Delta Phi Honor Fraternity and the Negotiations Team. In addition, Donia was a member of the William Augustus Bootle Inn of Court and the W. Homer Drake, Jr. Georgia Bankruptcy American Inn of Court. Donia graduated cum laude from Mercer in 2021.

James-Bates-Brannan-Groover-LLP is excited to have the experience, understanding, principles, and dedication that Donia brings to the team.
