08.21.2019 \ Community \ Less than a minute

Please help us welcome Angela Delaney as the newest legal assistant in our Financial Institutions and Real Estate practice group.

Angela was born and raised in Atlanta, Georgia. She gained her love for real estate and law at a young age from her uncle, who practiced real estate and tax law for over fifty years. She enjoys reading, traveling and spending time with family, especially her husband, three kids and one granddaughter.

Welcome Angela, we are thrilled you have chosen to be a part of the JBBG family.
