About Dallas

Dallas Roper is Of Counsel in the firm's Macon Office. Her practice focuses on civil litigation, mainly insurance defense. Prior to joining the firm, Dallas gained 19 years of legal experience working as a legal secretary and law clerk prior to practicing law. She practiced law exclusively as a plaintiff's lawyer for five years. The last three years she has been practicing with a general practice firm working on a variety of cases, including general civil litigation cases, personal injury cases, and some commercial leasing and collection matters.

Actively involved in community organizations, Dallas currently serves on the Star Choices Advisory Board, serves as a board member with Big Brother Big Sister Heart of Georgia, volunteers with the local chapter of the Alzheimer's Association, and is a member of the 2014 Leadership Macon class.
