

Corporate + Transactional

James Bates offers its clients dynamic and sophisticated corporate and transactional legal representation. Our attorneys regularly counsel clients, negotiate and close complex business transactions, and offer creative solutions to business issues.

From formation until an exit event, our attorneys assist founder led and family-owned business throughout all stages of the business life cycle. This representation includes entity formation and organizational matters, day-to-day matters such as complex supplier and vendor agreements, joint-venture agreements, employment agreements, software agreements, licensing agreements, intellectual property agreements and other ancillary business matters.

Our attorneys take the time to understand the specific needs of our clients and are experienced with all major issues that arise in structuring and negotiating acquisitions and sales of businesses. We handle our clients' corporate and transactional matters in a responsive, professional manner with an emphasis on efficiency to assist them in obtaining their goals.